Dear Nigel,

You may have heard of Lori Deveny. Here's the article from The Oregonian
O https://www.oregonlive.com/portland/index.ssf/2018/06/portland_lawyer_lied_to_client.html

I've received calls from people she swindled and to whom she has not disclosed she may no longer practice law. She is still stringing them along.

- In 2007 she settled a case for roughly $300,000 and said the money is tied up with class actions having to do with a lien holder. The man is disabled because of the car wreck lawsuit she settled. They gave me authority to pass their info to the press. jeffmerrick@jeffmerrick.com
- About 8 years ago, she settled a case for roughly $750,000 and is still stringing the disabled man along. The girlfriend is asking him for permission to share his info to you.
- jeffmerrick@jeffmerrick.com authorized me to contact the press. She has the following concern:

Subject: Questions re: Lori Deveny

Hi Jeff, I read your article and wanted to reach out. My name is

I informed the Oregon State Bar ~~know~~^{how} about Deveny's continuing to string along people.

I decided not to help the car wreck victims with lawsuits against Deveny. Although I wanted publicity to warn others, I felt the odds of ever collecting for these folks were slim.

Perhaps there's an article in this to put the public on further notice.

Jeff
